

THE HERALD.

J. O. P. BARRETT, EDITOR.
THURSDAY, JULY 28, 1880.

Democratic National Ticket.

FOR PRESIDENT,
GEN. WINFIELD S. HANCOCK,
OF PENNSYLVANIA.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT
WILLIAM H. ENGLISH,
OF INDIANA.

ELECTORS FOR THE STATE AT LARGE.
THOMAS L. JONES,
A. E. RICHARDS.

DISTRICT ELECTORS.

First District—James D. White.
Second District—A. T. Craycroft.
Third District—P. F. Edwards.
Fourth District—James Montgomery.
Fifth District—E. W. McDermott.
Sixth District—James W. Bryan.
Seventh District—Wm. C. Owens.
Eighth District—Michael C. Saufley.
Ninth District—Joseph Gardner.
Tenth District—Francis L. Cleveland.

Democratic District Ticket.

FOR CIRCUIT JUDGE,
LUCIUS P. LITTLE.

AS COMMONWEALTH'S ATTORNEY,
JOE NOE,

Democratic County Ticket.

FOR CIRCUIT COURT CLERK,
CLARENCE HARDWICK.

FOR SHERIFF,
ALEXANDER C. ELLIS.

Why we are for Judge Little.

In conversation Monday, a voter asked us "why are you for Judge Little?" We append a few of the many reasons we could give why we are for Judge Little for Circuit Judge:

We are for Judge Little because he is better qualified morally and physically to fill the office than his opponent, Judge Stuart.

We are for Judge Little because by electing him we will stop a draw of over seven hundred dollars per annum upon our tax payers, which we have to pay to pro tem. Judges to help Judge Stuart do the work which he was elected and paid to do, but which he is incapable of doing, and which Judge Little will do himself.

We are for Judge Little because he has never held office, while Judge Stuart has been in a fat-salaried office all the time since 1850, (save a few months) a period of 24 years, and this is long enough, for the new Constitution of this State was adopted more expressly to foster rotation in office than any other one thing.

We are for Judge Little because he was a Democrat before the war, a Democrat during the war, has been a Democrat since the war, is a true Democrat now and never dodges the fact, but always owns up and is not ashamed but proud of his political principles, while Judge Stuart cannot, or at least will not, tell what his politics are, but leaves the impression with Greenbackers that he is the original Greenbacker, the daddy of that party, and that Peter Cooper, Bredt Pomeroy, Gen. Weaver nor any one else is a circumstance to him; with a Republican, that he is par excellence, the best Republican on earth; with Democrats, that Thomas Jefferson was never half so good a Democrat as he; with persons of no particular creed, that he is non-political, and thinks it an unpardonable sin to belong to a political party, and in company where more than one political party is represented, he says he is a political cosmopolitan (wonder what kind of a varmint that is). So you cannot place your finger on the Judge politically and say here he is, but if you will examine his record you will find that he has been a Republican, and as all the Republican officials, and the masses of the Republicans are for him, it is not hard to conclude that he is still a Republican.

We are for Judge Little because he is the Democratic nominee for Circuit Judge in the Fourth Judicial District, having been fairly and honorably chosen, and having received the largest support for the nomination ever received by any one from the four counties for the nomination to any position, with or without opposition, and having been duly declared the nominee by the proper authority, and being the only Democrat before the people for this office.

We are for Judge Little because this is no off year. It is the most important year in the history of the country, and one when it is more important for Democrats to stand by their nominees than ever before, for by so doing we have it in our power to elect the gallant soldier-statesman General Winfield Scott Hancock as President, but if a Democratic District's Democratic nominees are defeated it will be heralded abroad over every doubtful State, and will encourage and consolidate our enemies and dishearten and dismay our friends. We are for Judge Little because the Democratic party of the District has spoken through the proper channel and proclaimed him our standard bearer in this fight, and as he is worthy and well qualified, it is the duty of every true Democrat to give him his undivided support.

Mr. JONES, Chairman of the Committee of the 4th Judicial District, denies having signed the article or letter that Mr. Haycraft has been making such a parade about. Read his card on the first page of this issue.

"THERE is dirt in the bolt," is a common saying in this county.

REMEMBER, he who votes for a bolter places himself in the same attitude of a bolter, politically.

THE thriving city of Owensboro has a population of 8,300, having more than doubled in the last ten years.

READ the letter of Mr. E. L. Jones explaining the letter from him to Haycraft and Noe. He gives a full account of that transaction.

JUDGE STUART says he is a "Cosmopolitan." Well, as we don't know any party in this country sailing under such a cognomen, he will be fit for granted that the Judge will be defeated on next Monday.

DEMOCRATS are you going to vote for a man who denounces you and your party as bandy-kneed, knock-kneed, whopper-jawed, and doing all he can to disorganize the party? or will you vote for Mr. Noe, who is the nominee of the Democrats and who is in union with their best interests?

THE Democrats of the Evansville District, on last Thursday, nominated ex-Mayor J. J. Kleiner for Congress. He is very popular and almost sure of election, which will make one change in favor of the Democrats, as the District is now represented by Mr. Hellman, a Republican.

JUDGE STUART has no claim upon Republicans and Greenbackers because he says he is a Democrat. He has no claim upon Democrats because he has never affiliated with that party. He was first a Whig, second a Know-nothing, third a Republican, fourth a "Cosmopolitan," and never a Democrat.

IT is not a little strange that Democrats are for a man who, in 1880, which is the first time in 20 years that the Democrats have had a gleam of hope or a promise of success, is the first and only Democratic candidate to bolt or refuse to submit his claims to Democrats. We refer to Maj. Haycraft.

MAJ. HAYCRAFT has become bloated on $4,000 grab gobled from the State Treasury. It is said that a good deal of it is just now being expended in hiring bumboes to ride through the district to tell the people, who are being taxed for this $4,000 grab, that the lawyers, gamblers and whiskey men of Owensboro are after him. This reminds us of the old dodge "stop thief."

WITH STUART as Judge, we have to pay seven hundred and six dollars and eighty-three cents per annum, which comes out of the tax payers of the State, for pro tem. Judges to help him do his work. With Little as Judge we see this. Voter, ask yourself the question, can you afford such an expense just because Judge Stuart is a clever old man? We think not, and will vote for Little.

WE wish we could give the letter of Mr. Tompkins in reply to E. L. Jones, as it is a good paper and substantiates Mr. Jones and shows conclusively that Haycraft got Tompkins to aid him in getting a letter, impressing Jones that it was for one purpose while in truth Haycraft wanted it for another and entirely different purpose. We are for Judge Little, because he is par excellence, the best Republican on earth; with Democrats, that he is a sound, able jurist, who is not hard to dodge responsibilities.

IT is understood that money is circulating freely in various parts of the Fourth Judicial District. Well, Major Haycraft, having his $4,000 grab upon the pocket which he got from the State for 30 days work in the suit of Bennett Stevens and others; and Judge Stuart's draft being current at the Internal Revenue office in Owensboro, they can well afford to hire bumboes to ride over the country and disorganize the Democratic party.

JUDGE STUART is out in a circular. It seems to us that it would have been fairer and in better taste if he had gone before the people and said what he had to say, than to have waited until the eve of the election to write a circular. In this circular he censures Judge Little, because his father and two of his brothers were Republicans. We think he is deserving of credit instead of censure from Democrats for his fidelity to principles, regardless of parental and brotherly influences.

MAJ. HAYCRAFT says that Mr. Jones, Chairman of the District Committee, threw him off the track in the primary election. We are reminded of an old lawyer, who left home to attend court in an adjoining county. His friends remonstrated with him for eating dinner, telling him that they would give him the colic. Well, said he, "I promised my wife that I would drink no whisky while gone, unless I happened to take the colic, and to tell you the truth, I want to take the colic." Major Haycraft wanted to be thrown off the track.

JUDGE GEO. W. WILLIAMS, who assisted Major Haycraft in the suit of Bennett Stevens and others against the State, had to sue Haycraft for his services. He stated in the trial of the cause that one thousand dollars would have been a sufficient fee for all the work on the part of the counsel for the Defense, and yet Judge Stuart allowed, and Haycraft collected, four thousand dollars. These men are too liberal with the people's money. Let's take the keys of the Treasury away from them and give them to Little and Noe.

IN 1877 the incompetency of Judge Stuart, principally from physical inability, cost the State the sum of $1,226.78 for pro tem. Judges to do the work he was elected and paid himself to do. The same year Judge Cissell's district only cost the State, for the same purpose, $35.70. Elect Judge Little and pro tem Judges in this district during the next term will cost the State nothing, instead of an average of seven hundred and six dollars and eighty-three cents each year. Judge Little is thoroughly competent, physically as well as mentally, and if elected (well, there is no if about it, he will be elected) will discharge the duties of the office himself, and not leave the work to be done by pro tem Judges.

THE intimation in Judge Stuart's circular that Judge Little controls the columns of the three newspapers in the district, is, so far as this paper is concerned, wholly untrue. We control its columns and we are not at the beck, call or command of any man or party. We have notions and views of our own and dare to express them on any and all occasions. Because we deem it our privilege and right and see proper to oppose Judge Stuart in this race, and support Judge Little, here must come the insinuation that Judge Little controls the columns of our paper. It is not true.

JUDGE STUART says he is a "Cosmopolitan." Well, as we don't know any party in this country sailing under such a cognomen, he will be fit for granted that the Judge will be defeated on next Monday.

DEMOCRATS are you going to vote for a man who denounces you and your party as bandy-kneed, knock-kneed, whopper-jawed, and doing all he can to disorganize the party? or will you vote for Mr. Noe, who is the nominee of the Democrats and who is in union with their best interests?

THE Democrats of the Evansville District, on last Thursday, nominated ex-Mayor J. J. Kleiner for Congress.

He is very popular and almost sure of election, which will make one change in favor of the Democrats, as the District is now represented by Mr. Hellman, a Republican.

JUDGE STUART has no claim upon Republicans and Greenbackers because he says he is a Democrat. He has no claim upon Democrats because he has never affiliated with that party. He was first a Whig, second a Know-nothing, third a Republican, fourth a "Cosmopolitan," and never a Democrat.

IT is not a little strange that Democrats are for a man who, in 1880, which is the first time in 20 years that the Democrats have had a gleam of hope or a promise of success, is the first and only Democratic candidate to bolt or refuse to submit his claims to Democrats. We refer to Maj. Haycraft.

MAJ. HAYCRAFT has become bloated on $4,000 grab gobled from the State Treasury. It is said that a good deal of it is just now being expended in hiring bumboes to ride through the district to tell the people, who are being taxed for this $4,000 grab, that the lawyers, gamblers and whiskey men of Owensboro are after him. This reminds us of the old dodge "stop thief."

WITH STUART as Judge, we have to pay seven hundred and six dollars and eighty-three cents per annum, which comes out of the tax payers of the State, for pro tem. Judges to help him do his work. With Little as Judge we see this. Voter, ask yourself the question, can you afford such an expense just because Judge Stuart is a clever old man? We think not, and will vote for Little.

WE wish we could give the letter of Mr. Tompkins in reply to E. L. Jones, as it is a good paper and substantiates Mr. Jones and shows conclusively that Haycraft got Tompkins to aid him in getting a letter, impressing Jones that it was for one purpose while in truth Haycraft wanted it for another and entirely different purpose. We are for Judge Little, because he is par excellence, the best Republican on earth; with Democrats, that he is a sound, able jurist, who is not hard to dodge responsibilities.

IT is understood that money is circulating freely in various parts of the Fourth Judicial District. Well, Major Haycraft, having his $4,000 grab upon the pocket which he got from the State for 30 days work in the suit of Bennett Stevens and others; and Judge Stuart's draft being current at the Internal Revenue office in Owensboro, they can well afford to hire bumboes to ride over the country and disorganize the Democratic party.

JUDGE STUART is out in a circular. It seems to us that it would have been fairer and in better taste if he had gone before the people and said what he had to say, than to have waited until the eve of the election to write a circular. In this circular he censures Judge Little, because his father and two of his brothers were Republicans. We think he is deserving of credit instead of censure from Democrats for his fidelity to principles, regardless of parental and brotherly influences.

MAJ. HAYCRAFT says that Mr. Jones, Chairman of the District Committee, threw him off the track in the primary election. We are reminded of an old lawyer, who left home to attend court in an adjoining county. His friends remonstrated with him for eating dinner, telling him that they would give him the colic. Well, said he, "I promised my wife that I would drink no whisky while gone, unless I happened to take the colic, and to tell you the truth, I want to take the colic." Major Haycraft wanted to be thrown off the track.

JUDGE STUART attempts to explain the allowance of four thousand dollars to Major Haycraft upon the ground that it was based on the statements of Judge Murray and Judge Little. Murray never saw the papers in the case, and knew no more about what Haycraft had done than the man in the moon, except as represented to him by Major Haycraft. Judge Little knew no more than Judge Murray, except what he might have heard of the final trial in passing in and out of the court room, and his opinion was based upon representations made to him by Haycraft, and his affidavit shows this fact, for he says if all the facts are as represented, then the allowance ought to be so much. It was tried before Judge Stuart, and he knew all about it. Why should he ask or take men's opinions who knew little or nothing about the facts. The only answer that can be given is that he was trying to dodge responsibilities.

JUDGE STUART is out in a circular. It seems to us that it would have been fairer and in better taste if he had gone before the people and said what he had to say, than to have waited until the eve of the election to write a circular. In this circular he censures Judge Little, because his father and two of his brothers were Republicans. We think he is deserving of credit instead of censure from Democrats for his fidelity to principles, regardless of parental and brotherly influences.

MAJ. HAYCRAFT says that Mr. Jones, Chairman of the District Committee, threw him off the track in the primary election. We are reminded of an old lawyer, who left home to attend court in an adjoining county. His friends remonstrated with him for eating dinner, telling him that they would give him the colic. Well, said he, "I promised my wife that I would drink no whisky while gone, unless I happened to take the colic, and to tell you the truth, I want to take the colic." Major Haycraft wanted to be thrown off the track.

JUDGE STUART attempts to explain the allowance of four thousand dollars to Major Haycraft upon the ground that it was based on the statements of Judge Murray and Judge Little. Murray never saw the papers in the case, and knew no more about what Haycraft had done than the man in the moon, except as represented to him by Major Haycraft. Judge Little knew no more than Judge Murray, except what he might have heard of the final trial in passing in and out of the court room, and his opinion was based upon representations made to him by Haycraft, and his affidavit shows this fact, for he says if all the facts are as represented, then the allowance ought to be so much. It was tried before Judge Stuart, and he knew all about it. Why should he ask or take men's opinions who knew little or nothing about the facts. The only answer that can be given is that he was trying to dodge responsibilities.

JUDGE STUART is out in a circular. It seems to us that it would have been fairer and in better taste if he had gone before the people and said what he had to say, than to have waited until the eve of the election to write a circular. In this circular he censures Judge Little, because his father and two of his brothers were Republicans. We think he is deserving of credit instead of censure from Democrats for his fidelity to principles, regardless of parental and brotherly influences.

MAJ. HAYCRAFT says that Mr. Jones, Chairman of the District Committee, threw him off the track in the primary election. We are reminded of an old lawyer, who left home to attend court in an adjoining county. His friends remonstrated with him for eating dinner, telling him that they would give him the colic. Well, said he, "I promised my wife that I would drink no whisky while gone, unless I happened to take the colic, and to tell you the truth, I want to take the colic." Major Haycraft wanted to be thrown off the track.

JUDGE STUART attempts to explain the allowance of four thousand dollars to Major Haycraft upon the ground that it was based on the statements of Judge Murray and Judge Little. Murray never saw the papers in the case, and knew no more about what Haycraft had done than the man in the moon, except as represented to him by Major Haycraft. Judge Little knew no more than Judge Murray, except what he might have heard of the final trial in passing in and out of the court room, and his opinion was based upon representations made to him by Haycraft, and his affidavit shows this fact, for he says if all the facts are as represented, then the allowance ought to be so much. It was tried before Judge Stuart, and he knew all about it. Why should he ask or take men's opinions who knew little or nothing about the facts. The only answer that can be given is that he was trying to dodge responsibilities.

JUDGE STUART is out in a circular. It seems to us that it would have been fairer and in better taste if he had gone before the people and said what he had to say, than to have waited until the eve of the election to write a circular. In this circular he censures Judge Little, because his father and two of his brothers were Republicans. We think he is deserving of credit instead of censure from Democrats for his fidelity to principles, regardless of parental and brotherly influences.

MAJ. HAYCRAFT says that Mr. Jones, Chairman of the District Committee, threw him off the track in the primary election. We are reminded of an old lawyer, who left home to attend court in an adjoining county. His friends remonstrated with him for eating dinner, telling him that they would give him the colic. Well, said he, "I promised my wife that I would drink no whisky while gone, unless I happened to take the colic, and to tell you the truth, I want to take the colic." Major Haycraft wanted to be thrown off the track.

JUDGE STUART attempts to explain the allowance of four thousand dollars to Major Haycraft upon the ground that it was based on the statements of Judge Murray and Judge Little. Murray never saw the papers in the case, and knew no more about what Haycraft had done than the man in the moon, except as represented to him by Major Haycraft. Judge Little knew no more than Judge Murray, except what he might have heard of the final trial in passing in and out of the court room, and his opinion was based upon representations made to him by Haycraft, and his affidavit shows this fact, for he says if all the facts are as represented, then the allowance ought to be so much. It was tried before Judge Stuart, and he knew all about it. Why should he ask or take men's opinions who knew little or nothing about the facts. The only answer that can be given is that he was trying to dodge responsibilities.

JUDGE STUART is out in a circular. It seems to us that it would have been fairer and in better taste if he had gone before the people and said what he had to say, than to have waited until the eve of the election to write a circular. In this circular he censures Judge Little, because his father and two of his brothers were Republicans. We think he is deserving of credit instead of censure from Democrats for his fidelity to principles, regardless of parental and brotherly influences.

MAJ. HAYCRAFT says that Mr. Jones, Chairman of the District Committee, threw him off the track in the primary election. We are reminded of an old lawyer, who left home to attend court in an adjoining county. His friends remonstrated with him for eating dinner, telling him that they would give him the colic. Well, said he, "I promised my wife that I would drink no whisky while gone, unless I happened to take the colic, and to tell you the truth, I want to take the colic." Major Haycraft wanted to be thrown off the track.

JUDGE STUART attempts to explain the allowance of four thousand dollars to Major Haycraft upon the ground that it was based on the statements of Judge Murray and Judge Little. Murray never saw the papers in the case, and knew no more about what Haycraft had done than the man in the moon, except as represented to him by Major Haycraft. Judge Little knew no more than Judge Murray, except what he might have heard of the final trial in passing in and out of the court room, and his opinion was based upon representations made to him by Haycraft, and his affidavit shows this fact, for he says if all the facts are as represented, then the allowance ought to be so much. It was tried before Judge Stuart, and he knew all about it. Why should he ask or take men's opinions who knew little or nothing about the facts. The only answer that can be given is that he was trying to dodge responsibilities.

JUDGE STUART is out in a circular. It seems to us that it would have been fairer and in better taste if he had gone before the people and said what he had to say, than to have waited until the eve of the election to write a circular. In this circular he censures Judge Little, because his father and two of his brothers were Republicans. We think he

THE HERALD.

LYCOURUS BARRETT, LOCAL EDITOR.

WEDNESDAY, JULY 26, 1880.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

For Circuit Court Clerk.

We are authorized to announce G. Smith Fitzlugh as a candidate for the office of Circuit Clerk of Ohio county. Subject to the action of the voters at the polls on Monday, August 2d, 1880.

For Commonwealth's Attorney.

We are authorized to announce Maj. Joe Hayscraft as a candidate for Commonwealth's Attorney in this, the 4th Judicial District, composed of Davies, McLean, Hancock and Ohio counties.

For Circuit Court Judge.

We are authorized to announce Judge James Stuart, of Owensboro, a candidate for re-election to the office of Judge of the Circuit Court of the Fourth Judicial District, composed of the counties of Davies, McLean, Hancock and Ohio. Election, August 24, 1880.

For Constable.

We are authorized to announce James W. Daniel as a candidate for re-election to the office of Constable in the Cromwell Magisterial District. Election, August 2d, 1880.

We are authorized to announce John T. Smith a candidate for Constable in the Hartford magisterial district. Subject to the vote of the people at the August election.

We are authorized to announce Warren L. Maddox, a candidate for the office of constable in Hartford magisterial precinct. Election, August 2d, 1880.

We are authorized to announce Henry S. Midkiff, a candidate for the office of constable in Hartford magisterial precinct. Election, August 2d, 1880.

For Sheriff.

David L. Smith is a candidate for Sheriff of Ohio county. Election, August 2d, 1880.

For Marshal.

We are authorized to announce W. P. Hader as a candidate for the office of Marshal of the town of Hartford. Election, August 2d, 1880.

For Auditor.

We are authorized to announce John Bean as a candidate for Marshal of the town of Hartford. Election, August 2d, 1880.

PERSONAL.

Cadet Midshipman W. P. Hader, of Annapolis, Md., is spending vacation with his relatives near town.

Alex Barnett, Esq., who left for the Sunny Plains of Texas a year ago, is visiting his relatives near town.

Mr. Quay Howey, of Vine Grove, Hardin county, Ky., is visiting his Uncle, Mr. George W. Bunker, of this place.

Mr. Thomas Morris, recently of this office, has taken a room on the Hartford HERALD. Tom is a good boy and a good printer.—Editorial Notes.

Our young friend, Leslie Barnett, who has been seeking fame and fortune in Missouri for a year, returned home last Thursday.

John Ayer, of McLean county, who is attending the White Sulphur Springs, was in attendance at the hop Friday night. He called to see us while here.

Rev. J. S. McDaniel, who has been visiting his daughter, Mrs. A. W. Little, in Medicine Lodge, Kansas, for about a month past, returned home last Saturday evening.

Mrs. Abe Berryman and Master Charles Miller, who have been visiting friends and relatives at Hartford and Sulphur Springs, returned to their homes in Owensboro last Friday.

Mrs. Wells, who has been spending several weeks here, returned to her home in Louisville last Thursday evening. She is an amiable lady, and will probably return to Hartford to engage in business.

John E. Walker attended, by invitation, the Hancock and Ohio satisfaction meeting at Calhoun last Saturday, and made one of his usual good speeches. We understand that his speech was received with great enthusiasm.

Mrs. Lizzie Walker, who has been visiting friends and acquaintances in Paris, Tenn., and Murfreesboro, Ky., for about two months past, returned home last Wednesday. The intelligence of her return will be hailed with pleasure by her many friends here.

Bob & Jack want to see you.

Bob & Jack want all your produce.

Pure wines and liquors, at the Red Bar.

Ladies' Ulsters—a big stock, at Anderson's Bazaar.

Extra quality of baking powder, at Bob & Jack's.

You can get a nice white vest, at Anderson's Bazaar, for 90 cents.

If you want a good rig, come to the auction sales next Monday.

Go to the Hartford Bakery Monday and get your Hancock and Garfield cakes and cider—hot, you know.

Mr. Sam'l. A. Williams has purchased a lot opposite Mr. A. T. Nall's and will commence the erection of a nice dwelling on it in a day or so.

Williams Bros. will soon have completed burning their brick kiln. They have the largest perhaps ever turned in Ohio county.

If you want a good gold or silver watch, cheap, attend the auction sales Monday, Igelhart will sell it to you at your price.

Mr. J. T. Igelhart, County Auctioneer, is in Cincinnati, where he will purchase a fine lot of buggies, harnesses, saddles, both ladies' and gentlemen's, trunks, &c., &c., also a fine lot of gold and silver watches, bought at pawnbrokers' auction, silver plated goods, &c., &c. These goods will be sold at auction next Monday. Don't fail to attend and secure bargains.

Thousands of soldiers and heirs are entitled to pensions with payment from date of discharge or death, if applied for before July 1, 1881. Wound, accidental injury or disease entitled to a pension. Bounty and back pay collected. Increase of pension secured. This firm established in 1868. Address, enclosing stamp, Edison Bros., U. S. Claim Attorneys, 711 G. Street, Washington, D. C.

10-11

The money for May draft of the school money came to hand on yesterday and will be paid to those entitled to it as they may call for it, or on the written order of those who are unable to call for it in person. All persons wishing to be examined as to their qualifications to teach are notified that the Examining board only convenes on Saturday the 1st of each month, and we will keep them posted in all these matters, and all others of local or general interest.

11-12

A. B. BAIRD, C. S. C.

July 27th, 1880.

Trimming silks in all colors for 60 cents a yard, at Anderson's Bazaar.

FOR SALE—A house and lot in town. Apply to WM. STEERLE. 29-30

Prints at five cents per yard, at L. P. Banard's Beaver Dam store. 30-31

R. P. Rowe & Bro. continue to open new goods, will open another new lot to-day.

London Punch collars—the very latest style for gents, at Anderson's Bazaar.

Fresh supply of salt and lime for sale by I. P. Banard, Beaver Dam. 30-31

Igelhart will sell you more goods next Monday than was ever heard of before.

Dress linens, for ladies' Ulsters, can be had, very cheap, at Anderson's Bazaar.

Now is the time to buy a good bug-bay and harness. Igelhart will sell them Monday.

The quarterly meeting for this circuit will be held at Liberty church next Saturday and Sunday.

If you want to buy your wife, sister or aunt a nice saddle, come to the auction sales Monday, Igelhart's got 'em.

Hon. James A. McKenzewill speak in Hartford, Monday, August 9th, 1880. No mistake this time.

Corn looks well in the Rockport country. The damage by high water is not so great as was at first supposed.

Walter, a little son of E. C. Hubbard, of this place, had one of his fingers badly crushed by a cider mill one day last week.

A large number of our citizens attended the Catholic Festival at Litchfield last Wednesday. They all report a gay time.

John R. Smith is a candidate for Sheriff of Ohio county. Election, August 2d, 1880.

FOR SALE.—A No. 1 young milch cow and calf. Apply to GRIFFIN BROS.

We are authorized to announce P. E. Hocker, a grocery business at the same place.

P. E. Hocker, V. C. Hocker. 28-29

Dwelling House for Sale.

I own a fine new two-story dwelling house in Rosine, which I desire to sell for part cash, and will give good time on the remainder. Rosine is a flourishing business town, on the P. & E. R. R., and a good location for a merchant, mechanic or tobacco-merchant.

HENRY D. MCHENRY, Hartfield, Ky. 24-25

Due Notice.

Our wheat mill has already stopped and our corn mill will be stopped from and after this date. This is necessary to make needed repairs and improvements. The work will be done as quickly as possible and due notice will be given of the time of going to grinding again.

JOHN R. & WM. PHIPPS. 29-30

Hartford Water Mills.

Hymen.

Mr. Jas. N. Brandon, of Caneyville, and Miss Madeline Whittinghill, of Breckinridge county, were united in the holy bonds of matrimony at the residence of the bride's father, Mr. Remus Whittinghill, Thursday 23d inst., by Elder C. Voyles. The attendants were Mr. H. M. Daniel, of Caneyville, and Miss Fannie Mathews, of Breckinridge county, Mr. Willie Jones and Miss Nannie Wilson, of Fordsville, Ohio county, and Mr. J. T. Neal and Miss Lida Tiford, of Caneyville.

Desiring to close out my present stock of goods to make room for a new fall supply, I will sell goods on hand and even below cost. Now is your time to secure bargains.

30-31 I. P. BANARD, Beaver Dam.

The cheap goods in Table-cloths, Napkins, Tickings and Window-trimmings, at Anderson's Bazaar, are real bargains and people would do well to take advantage of them before they are all gone.

The Catholic festival at Litchfield last Wednesday, under the management of Father M. F. Melody was quite a success. We are sorry that circumstances were such that prevented us from attending.

The quarterly meeting of the M. E. Church South will be held at Liberty church commencing next Saturday and embracing Sabbath. The appointment to recognize the merit of the young men of our county who have been honored abroad, we will esteem it a favor if you will, upon some occasion which suits your convenience, give a public reading of such selections as you may deem best.

E. C. HUBBARD, SAM. E. HILL, E. DUDLEY WALKER, S. W. ANDERSON, And others.

Religious.

The Baptist church at Buford will hold her quarterly communion service next Sunday, (first Sunday in August,) and the pastor, Dr. Coleman, will discourse on the "Memorials of the Gospel." In the afternoon there will be a competition by members of his congregation in scripture recitation for a family Bible prize. All the exercises are expected to be of a most interesting kind. Let the multitudes come.

The Daviess County Association

Holds its next annual session with the church at Beaver Dam, Ohio county, Ky., beginning August 10, 1880.

The P. & E. R. R. will sell excursion tickets from all its stations to the junction on the 9th, 10th and 11th days of August at one and one-fifth fare for the round trip. Tickets good to return until August 14.

The O. & N. R. R. will sell excursion tickets from all its stations to the junction on the 9th, 10th and 11th days of August at one and one-fifth fare for the round trip. Tickets good to return until August 14.

J. S. COLEMAN, Moderator of last session.

P. S.—Those proposing to come by rail had better clip this notice and put it in their pocket-book.

J. S. C.

Population of Ohio County.

The following is the population of Ohio county by districts as returned to my office by the several enumerators of the county :

Hartford ..... 2,912
Beaver Dam ..... 1,558
Centerport ..... 1,651
Rockport and Cool Spring ..... 1,941
Cynthiana ..... 1,463
Stewart ..... 633

Rosine ..... 2,355
Sulphur Springs ..... 1,080
Fordsville ..... 2,292

Ellis ..... 997

Burford ..... 1,670

Bardstown ..... 1,231

Total ..... 19,783

Being a gain of 4,222 since 1870, or twenty-seven per cent.

SAM. K. COX, County Clerk.

The Best Offer Yet.

We will send the Hartford HERALD to any subscriber from now to the end of the year 1881, 75 cents, to will also give choice of our premium books.

The subscription must be made before the 31st day of July, and the cash must be paid before the name is entered upon the subscription book.

This is the year for Presidential, Congressional, Judicial, District and County elections, and we will keep them posted in all these matters, and all others of local or general interest.

10-11

Hartford Bakery.

Ch. Louis Guenther informs the citizens of Hartford and vicinity that he is prepared to furnish them with baker's bread.

24-25

A nice cottage home in Hartford, in good repair, and located convenient to the new school building. For particulars, apply to

17-18 GEO. KLEIN & BRO.

For Sale.

1-24-tf

A nice cottage home in Hartford, in good repair, and located convenient to the new school building. For particulars, apply to

17-18 GEO. KLEIN & BRO.

For Sale.

1-24-tf

A nice cottage home in Hartford, in good repair, and located convenient to the new school building. For particulars, apply to

17-18 GEO. KLEIN & BRO.

For Sale.

1-24-tf

A nice cottage home in Hartford, in good repair, and located convenient to the new school building. For particulars, apply to

17-18 GEO. KLEIN & BRO.

For Sale.

1-24-tf

A nice cottage home in Hartford, in good repair, and located convenient to the new school building. For particulars, apply to

17-18 GEO. KLEIN & BRO.

For Sale.

1-24-tf

A nice cottage home in Hartford, in good repair, and located convenient to the new school building. For particulars, apply to

